NOTE FOR THE RECORD

STAT                    Mr. [ ] called and chatted STAT                    for a moment re Mr. Colby and his portrait.
                       Mr. [ ] plans to drop by next week to show us the portrait.

STAT                    Mr. [ ] wanted to refer the name STAT                    of a friend to the Agency for employment.
                       She is the daughter of a good friend of his and is named [ ]. She has two languages, has lived overseas extensively, and is nearing graduation from college. I advised him to give her Mr. Janney's name as he is the Director of Personnel, and I did not recall the name of our Recruitment Director since the previous one had retired.
